

Contents

Contents.....	2
Tables and figures.....	4
1. At a glance.....	7
2. Strategic findings.....	8
2.1 The social marketing model.....	8
2.2 An emphasis on men’s health.....	8
2.3 Testing as a key point of intervention.....	9
3. Summary of findings and recommendations.....	11
4. Methodology.....	19
4.1 Introduction.....	19
4.2 Locations.....	19
4.3 Recruiting strategy.....	19
4.4 Key informant interviews.....	20
4.5 The survey.....	20
4.5.1 Numbers completed.....	20
4.5.2 Limitations of the survey data.....	21
4.5.3 Interpretation of the data tables.....	22
4.5.4 Characteristics of survey respondents.....	22
5. Who are men who have sex with men?.....	26
5.1 Introduction.....	26
5.2 Situational sex with men.....	26
5.2.1 Prisoners.....	26
5.2.2 Miners.....	26
5.2.3 Ringers / cowboys.....	27
5.2.4 Men from Papua New Guinea.....	27
5.3 Young and sexually active.....	27
5.4 Come out and leave town (or vice versa).....	28
5.4.1 The question of numbers.....	28
5.5 Get married and have kids.....	28
5.6 Stay single.....	29
5.7 Empty nesters.....	29
5.8 Live as openly gay.....	30
5.9 What the survey said.....	31
5.10 How and where men have sex with other men.....	32
5.10.1 Where men meet for sex.....	32
5.10.2 Do they meet and have sex with men locally or away?.....	35
6. Identity and factors that influence it.....	39
6.1 Homosexual ... or gay?.....	39
6.1.1 What’s the difference between ‘homosexual’ and ‘gay’?.....	39
6.1.2 How respondents see themselves.....	40
6.2 So where does that leave bisexuals?.....	41

6.2.1	What the survey said.....	41
6.3	Factors that influence identity	42
6.4	Environmental factors.....	42
6.4.1	The all-pervading creed of machismo.....	42
6.4.2	'Everyone is straight here'	43
6.4.3	Homophobia and discrimination	44
6.4.4	Religious fundamentalism.....	45
6.4.5	Small town values.....	46
6.4.6	Negative perceptions of being gay	47
6.5	Interpersonal factors	47
6.5.1	Physical violence.....	48
6.5.2	Harassment, intimidation and ostracism.....	50
6.5.3	Rejection by family & friends.....	50
6.5.4	Lack of support	52
6.5.5	Discrimination at work	53
6.6	Personal factors.....	55
6.6.1	Inability, unwillingness to talk	55
6.6.2	Other personal factors.....	57
7.	How MSM respond to identity pressures.....	58
7.1	'Straight strategies'	58
7.1.1	We're all totally straight.....	58
7.1.2	No (or not many) worries!.....	60
7.2	Questioning and confused	61
7.2.1	Homosexual and anti-gay.....	61
7.2.2	Neither one nor the other	62
7.2.3	Don't have sex.....	62
7.2.4	Take up religion	63
7.2.5	Have mental health issues	64
7.3	Struggling toward resolution.....	69
7.4	Resolution.....	70
7.4.1	'I'm bisexual'	70
7.4.2	'The wife / girlfriend knows'	71
7.4.3	Coming out.....	73
8.	Social marketing, safe sex and STIs.....	76
8.1	The STI focus	76
8.2	The social marketing framework.....	76
8.3	The safe sex baseline	77
8.4	Are STIs / safe sex on the radar?.....	79
8.5	The safe sex message.....	79
8.5.1	Penetration of messages.....	79
8.5.2	Three markers for knowledge.....	81
8.5.3	Distortions to the message.....	82
8.5.4	Awareness of all health messages is low	83
8.6	Highlighting the benefits.....	83

8.6.1	Minimising the risk of catching an STI	83
8.6.2	Concern for female partners.....	85
8.7	Understanding the barriers / reducing the costs.....	85
8.7.1	'I hate wearing them'	86
8.7.2	Trust in partner	86
8.7.3	'I don't need it for oral sex'	87
8.7.4	'Don't have one on hand'	87
8.7.5	The heat of the moment	88
8.7.6	Depends on what the partner wants	88
8.7.7	Under the influence of alcohol/drugs	89
8.8	Inaccurate assessments	89
8.8.1	Don't worry / think about it	90
8.8.2	'It won't happen to me'	90
8.8.3	The culture doesn't support it.....	93
8.8.4	Combinations mean living with risk.....	95
9.	Information and messages about STIs	96
9.1	Information does make a difference	96
9.2	What do they want to talk about?	98
9.2.1	About STIs	98
9.2.2	Where can I get sex?	100
9.2.3	Someone to talk to	100
9.3	Accessibility of messages.....	100
9.3.1	Physical accessibility	100
9.3.2	Psychological accessibility / cultural context	102
9.4	Avenues for the delivery of messages	108
9.4.1	Sexual health clinics	110
9.4.2	General practitioners.....	112
9.4.3	Sexual health clinics, GPs and confidentiality	114
9.4.4	Internet.....	116
9.4.5	Someone to talk to	117
9.4.6	Phone services	118
9.4.7	Beat & other outreach.....	119
9.4.8	Mainstream media.....	120
9.4.9	Schools.....	120
9.4.10	Through local government	120
9.4.11	Other delivery mechanisms.....	121

Tables and figures

Table 1: Reasons for terminating interview after initial explanation	21
Figure 1: Age of respondents.....	22
Table 2: Postcode of respondents	23
Table 3: Respondent's level of education completed.....	24
Table 4: Respondent's work or study situation last week.....	24
Table 5: If respondent is of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander origin.....	24

Table 6: Who respondents had sex with in last year	25
Table 7: Who respondents are having regular sex with.....	25
Table 8: Respondents' marriage situation & sexuality	31
Table 9: Respondents' marriage situation.....	32
Table 10: Where respondents met other men for sex in the past year.....	32
Table 11: Where respondents had sex with men.....	35
Table 12: Travel involved in meeting men for sex	36
Table 13: When respondents last had sex locally, where their sex partners came from	37
Table 14: How many sex partners respondents had in the past year	37
Table 15: How respondents see themselves sexually	41
Table 16: Agreement with proposition that 'I am concerned about violence, discrimination and trouble with police, through looking for and having sex with men'	48
Table 17: Agreement with proposition that 'I want to report violence or discrimination against men who have sex with men to the police, and have action taken'	49
Table 18: Who knows that respondents have sex with men.....	52
Table 19: When respondents last had sex with men.....	62
Table 20: Respondents concern about family, friends or workmates finding out they have sex with men.....	64
Table 21: Agreement with proposition that 'I usually feel lonely or depressed because of my desire to have sex with men'	67
Table 22: How respondents see themselves sexually	71
Table 23: Who respondents had sex with in last year	71
Table 24: How respondents had sex with men in the past year.....	77
Table 25: If respondents wore a condom during sex.....	78
Table 26: Agreement with proposition that 'Anal sex without a condom is very high-risk for catching HIV/ AIDS'	79
Table 27: Agreement with proposition that 'I cannot catch HIV/ AIDS from mosquitoes'	81
Table 28: Agreement with proposition that 'It is legal for men over 18 to have anal sex with each other in Queensland'	81
Table 29: Agreement with proposition 'That there is no vaccine for HIV/ AIDS to stop me catching it'	82
Table 30: Agreement with proposition that 'Giving, or getting, a blow job is low-risk for catching HIV/ AIDS'	82
Table 31: Main health risks respondents perceive facing from having sex with men.....	83
Table 32: What respondents think is their risk of catching an STI.....	84
Table 33: Agreement with proposition that 'I am concerned about catching an STI'	84
Table 34: Respondents' main reasons for not using a condom when having sex.....	85
Table 35 : Why respondents think they have a particular level of risk of catching an STI.....	86
Table 36: Agreement with proposition that 'I find it hard to get condoms confidentially'	87
Table 37: When respondents have been under the influence of alcohol when having sex with men, in the last year.....	89
Table 38: STIs respondent s have ever been treated for	91
Table 39: Agreement with proposition that 'You can't usually tell by looking at someone if they have HIV'	92
Table 40: Agreement with proposition that 'There is a treatment against catching HIV if I get to a specialised HIV prescribing doctor or major hospital within 72 hours of being exposed to HIV'	94
Table 41: Degree to which information and advice made a difference to how respondents felt or acted.....	96
Table 42: If the information or advice received did make a difference, how	97

Table 43: Agreement with proposition that 'I know as much as I need to know about recognising a sexually-transmitted infection'	98
Table 44: If respondents talked to someone, what did they talk about?	98
Table 45: If respondents want to know more, what they want to know about STIs	99
Table 46: Agreement with proposition that 'I know where to go for information about safe sex and recognising and treating an STI.....	101
Table 47: How much of the information and advice respondents wanted did they receive.....	101
Table 48: Whether respondents have ever seen words or pictures about safe sex that made them feel uncomfortable	102
Table 49: material that made respondents uncomfortable, and why	102
Table 50: Where respondents have gained information about safe sex and STIs in the past year ..	108
Table 51: What respondents think would be good ways to get information and advice about safe sex.....	108
Table 52: Agreement with proposition that 'I feel I can talk to a health professional about having sex with men'	112
Table 53: Agreement with proposition that 'Anything I say to a doctor or nurse or sexual health counsellor about my sex life will be totally confidential, and will not be passed on by them'	115
Table 54: Agreement with proposition 'I want to talk to someone about the risks of having sex with men'	117
Table 55: If respondents did not talk to someone, why not.....	118